

What do you think about the book?

8+ Novels

To help you respond to the books that you are reading here are some top tips on what to think about once you have finished reading.

- When you were reading the book did the characters seem like real people?
- Did you believe what was happening in the book?
- Did the places mentioned in the story seem like they could have been real?

Once you have considered the above questions write a brief review for the website letting others know your feelings about the book. The easiest and quickest way to write a review is to think of 3 things that you liked or didn't like about the book and write about those.

Finally, give your book a star rating out of 5.